

Over-the-counter (OTC) Plan B® vs. Prescription (Rx) Plan B®

|                                       | OTC Plan B ®                               | Rx Plan B ®(from provider)   | Rx Plan B ®(initiated bypharmacist undera standing order)   |
|---------------------------------------|---|---|--|
| Age Requirements                      | 18+   | No restrictions   | No restrictions  |
| ID Required                           | YesGovt. issued IDwith date of birth. | No  | No   |
| PharmacyDocumentationRequired | None  | Information requiredwith any prescription.  | Information requiredwith any prescriptionand standing order.   |
| Who Can Pick It Up                    | Any male or femaleover 18 years old.              | The patient or agentacting on behalf ofthe patient.                               | The patient mustbe screened by thepharmacist. Then, thepatient or an agentacting on behalf of thepatient can pick it up. |
| Covered byPrescription Insurance  | No  | MaybeMassHealth will coverdrug. Other insurancesare looking into it. | MaybeMassHealth will coverdrug. Other insurancesare looking into it.  |
| Cost                                  | Cost of product                                       | Cost of productor co-pay + doctor'soffice visit.                                  | Cost of product orco-pay + pharmacistassessment fee.   |